

Many organizations were established to assist veterans in their quest for free lands. This one was headed by Col. Lawrence Buchan a veteran of the Boer War. While special legislation for Boer War veterans would be forth coming, at this point the land was obtained under the Dominion Lands Act of 1872.

